

Some of the BoD met in Minnesota. There was not a quorum, so the BoDs present decided to have a committee meeting instead. They discussed issues to be brought up at the next meeting when a quorum was available. The new BoDs and some of the current BoDs also met in California under the same circumstances.