About

Njord Halsnaes arrived at Footnote Farm early in 2020. He was a personal riding and driving horse in Germany and has nearly 70 foals to his credit there. He is well known in Germany for producing horses with great temperaments and a useful and willing nature. He is a pleasure to have at the farm and is a very easy stallion to handle in every way. He is tall with a great length of top line and limb. He has a lovely uphill carriage and way of going. He possesses some knee action but that does look attractive driving and in dressage without being a distraction. He has great jumping technique with natural bascule. His canter is rhythmic and ground covering. He is correct and very type for the breed in every respect.
